THE PREFACE:

SHEWING THE

Antiquity of Singing PSALMS and HYMNS; with an Account of this Book, and the Use thereof.

THE Praising of GOD by Psalms and Hymns, as it seems a part of Natural Religion owned and used by all Mankind, so we find the Practice of it very early in the Church of God. There can be no just cause to doubt, but that it was at least contemporary with Instrumental Musick, a thing as ancient as the Times of Adam, invented by Jubal who was the Father of all such as handle the Harp and Organ, Gen. 4. 21. But we need not build upon Conjectures, where we have clear Evidence. After the famous Deliverance which God gave the Israelites at the Red Sea, they celebrated the Mercy with a Song of Triumph; and Josephus says, They spent the whole night in Hymns and Mirth: Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the Lord, Exod. 15. 1. which is there upon Record, composed (as Josephus adds) in Hexameter Verse; and that it was conjoyned with Instrumental Musick is plain, vers. 20. 21. And Miriam the Propheteſs, the sister of Aaron, took a Timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her with Timbrels and with Dances: And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously, &c. But the first that established singing Psalms and Hymns, as a fix'd and constant part of God's publick Worship in the solemn Assemblies of the Jewish Church, was King David; whose zeal for God's Glory (before the House of God was built) set himself to compose divers Psalms for that service, as we read in 1 Chron. 16. 7. and ch. 25. v. 6, 7. and to chuse out Men skilful in Song to perform the same to the praise of Almighty God. When his Son Solomon had finished the Temple, at the Dedication thereof, you may read in 2 Chron. 5. 12, 13, 14. how the Praises of the Lord were sounded forth with Voices and Instruments, and also how acceptable it was to the Lord. This being established, the Priests and Levites continued this solemn Worship during the time of the First and Second Temple, even till the Destruction thereof, foretold by our blessed Saviour, who saw the Glory thereof, and frequented that place, as he acknowledgeth, Luke 22. 53. I was daily with you in the Temple. And (as a Learned Divine observes) it is not credible, that our blessed Saviour, who so often quoted David's Psalms for the confirmation of his Doctrine, would neglect that part of Worship then in force, and who did himself say, That it became him to fulfil all righteousness; which he further testified, when together with his Disciples he sung a Psalm or Hymn at the end of the Celebration of his Last Supper. After his Ascension, his Disciples gave testimony of their Approbation, Acts 2. 46, 47. They were daily with one accord in the temple praising God, &c. And Acts 3. 1. mentions that Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer; which was the set time for the Celebration of publick Worship.

The Use of Singing Psalms and Hymns was continued with great Reverence and Devotion among the Primitive Christians; those who consult the Writings of the Primitive Fathers, shall scarce meet with one that makes not mention thereof. An account hereof I find learnedly discoursed by Dr. Cave in his Primitive Christianity, Part 1. p. 276, 277. where, speaking of reading the appointed Lessons, he hath these words: About this part of the Service it was that they sung Hymns and Psalms, a considerable part of the Divine Worship, (as it had ever been accounted both amongst Jews and Gentiles) and more immediately serviceable for Celebrating the Honour of God, and lifting up the Minds of Men to Divine and Heavenly Raptures.

But to come nearer our Times: In our late Forefathers days, (upon the Restauration of our Church to its Primitive Purity and Discipline) it was, That some holy and godly Men brought the present use and manner of singing Psalms into the Publick Service of our Church, following herein the Examples of the Reformed Churches in France and Germany: But Time and long Use hath much abated the wonted Reverence and Estimation it had for about 100 Years after this Establishment. It was the Saying of a Learned Divine in his Sermon on this Subject, That Prayer shall cease, and Preaching shall cease, but Praising of GOD shall never cease, neither in this world, nor in that which is to come. To sing Praises to God, is an Angelick Office; it is a taste of the First-Fruits of Heaven while we are on Earth. MUSICK (the Learned say) is the Handmaid to Divinity; and there is no Science, except That, admitted into the Service of the Church.

To conclude: I have made it my Endeavour so to perfect and finish this Work, that nothing should be wanting to render it useful to the End it is designed, The Glory of GOD, and the Publick Service of the Church: And for that reason, (with the Judgment of some of the best skill'd in Musick) I have Composed all the Musical Tunes in Three Parts, viz. Cantus, Medius, and Bassus: The Church Tune is placed in the Treble Part, (which is the Cantus) with the Bass under it, as most proper to joyn Voice and Instrument together, according to holy David's prescription, ſcription, Pſal. 144. 9. And ſince many of our Churches are lately furniſhed with Organs, it will alſo be uſeful for the Organiſt; and likewiſe for ſuch Students in the Univerſities as ſhall practiſe Song, to ſing to a Lute or Viol. The Medius Part is compoſed (as is proper) not to riſe above the Church Tune, to cloud or obſcure the Ayre thereof, except in ſuch places as it could not be well avoided. The Baſs is compoſed in ſuch a compaſs of Notes, as will ſuit an indifferent Voice both below and above. All Three Parts may as properly be ſung by Men, as by Boys or Women: And to that end, the two Upper Parts are conſtant in the G ſol re ut Cliff, and the Baſs in the F fa ut (its proper) Cliff; all Three Parts moving together in Solemn way of Counterpoint, and alſo every Tune put in ſuch Keys as is moſt ſuitable to the Ayre thereof. Laſtly, you will find every Pſalm fitted to Tunes ſuitable and proper to the Matter: Pſalms of Prayer and Confeſſion, to ſolemn grave Flat Tunes; Pſalms of Thankſgiving and Praiſe, to lively chearful Sharp Tunes. Likewiſe all ſuch Pſalms and Hymns whoſe Tunes are long, and may ſeem difficult to ſome, have Directions over them to be ſung to other ſhort Common Tunes. Alſo there is affixed before the Book, a Table of the firſt Line of the Treble-Tunes of all the Pſalms, with the Names alphabetically ſet over each Tune; and under, what Pſalms are ſung to them: And a Table of Hymns in a Page by themſelves. As for Inſtructions to the Singing of them, I refer you to my Introduction to the Skill of Muſick, in 8°.

I have no more to add, but as the Glory of GOD, and the Service of his Church, was my ſole End and Aim; ſo I ſhall account my Labour and Pains herein ſufficiently recompenſed, if it prove Uſeful to ſuch as ſo endeavour to ſing the Praiſes of their Creator here on Earth in Pſalms and Hymns, that hereafter they may eternally ſing Hallelujahs among the bleſſed Choir of Saints and Angels. Which is the hearty Prayer of

Your Faithful Servant,

John Playford.

Of the Virtue and Efficacy of the PSALMS.

IN the Psalms are described the rewards of good, the punishments of evil men, the rudiments of beginners, the progress of proficients, and consummation of perfect men.

The Singing of Psalms comforteth the sorrowful, pacifieth the angry, strengthneth the weak, humbleth the proud, gladdeth the humble, stirreth up the slow, reconcileth enemies, lifteth up the heart to heavenly things, and uniteth the Creature to his Creator; for whatsoever is in the Psalms, conduceth to the edification, benefit, and consolation of mankind.

If thou would'st make a confession, and repent thee of thy sins; then with remorse and humility sing the 7 Penitential Psalms of David, viz. Psal. 6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, 143. and thou shalt feel the sweet mercies of God, and thy mind refreshed with spiritual joy.

If thou would'st pray; then pour forth thy soul in Psal. 25, 54, 67, 70, 72, 86, 143. for the soul of man cannot either feelingly express its misery, tribulation, and anguish of temptation, or more powerfully call upon the mercy of God, than in these Psalms.

If thou would'st praise the Majesty of God, or give him thanks for all his benefits; then sing Psal. 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 111, 113, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150.

If thou art so far afflicted with outward and inward temptations, that thou seemest to be forsaken; then sing heartily Psal. 22, 64, 69.

If this present life be tedious unto thee, and that with an ardent desire thou waitest to see God; then sing Psal. 42, 63, 84.

If thou find thy self quite dejected, and (as it were) forlorn in trouble; then with compunction of heart sing Psal. 13, 31, 44, 54, 56. And if thou hast found ease and rest unto thy soul, then sing to the praise of God Psal. 30, 34, 103, 104. And always (whether in time of adversity or prosperity) sing out the Song of the 3 holy Children, wherein every creature is invited to praise God

If thou desirest to exercise thy self in God's divine praises and precepts; then sing Psal. 119. wherein, if thou search even all thou canst, yet thou wilt never perfectly understand the virtues and excellencies, or reach to the heights and depths comprehended in it; for hardly is there a Verse, wherein is not mention made of God's Law, Commandments, Testimonies, or Precepts.

In a word, he that gives these heavenly Hymns their due, had need to compose a Psalm in praise of the Psalms, that so the devout and joyful soul might, with looking up to God, reflect upon its own work, and transport it self unto the Choir of Angels and Saints, whose perpetual task is to sing their concording Parts without pause, redoubling and descanting, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts. And if Vocal Musick be not enough, let the Instrumental be added, Rev. 15. 2, 3. They have in their hands the harps of God, and sing the song of Moses, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty. Amen.

THe man is bleſt that hath not lent, to ill ad-vice his ear:

Nor led his life as ſinners do, nor ſate in ſcorners chair.

But in the law of God the Lord, doth ſet his whole delight:

And in that law doth ex-er-ciſe himſelf both day and night.

3 He ſhall be like the tree that grows
near to the rivers ſide:
Which bringeth forth moſt pleaſant fruit
in her due time and tide.
Whoſe leaf ſhall never fade nor fall,
but flouriſh ſtill and ſtand:
Ev'n ſo all things ſhall proſper well,
that this man takes in hand.

4 So ſhall not the ungodly men,
they ſhall be nothing ſo:
But as the duſt which from the earth
the wind drives to and fro.

5 Therefore ſhall not the wicked men
in judgment ſtand upright:
Nor yet the ſinners with the juſt
ſhall come in place or ſight.

6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
Alſo the way of wicked men
ſhall quite be overthrown.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and ſhall be evermore.

Cantus & Bassus. Psalm II. Cambridge Tune.

Why do the people ſtill contrive, a thing that is but vain?

WHy did the Gentiles tumults raise? what rage was in their brain?

Why do the people still contrive a thing that is but vain?

Bassus. Psalm 2. A. 3. Voc.

WHy did the Gentiles tumults raise? what rage was in their brain?

Why do the people still contrive a thing that is but vain?

2 The Kings and Rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent:
Against the Lord and Christ his Son,
which he among us sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their Doctrine and their law
let us reject the yoke.

4 But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking stocks
throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath he shall reprove
their pride and scornful way:
And in his fury trouble them,
and unto them shall say:

6 I have anointed him my King
upon my holy hill:
I will therefore, Lord, preach thy law,
according to thy will.

7 The law whereof the Lord himself
hath thus said unto me, Thou art my only son, this day
have I begotten thee.

8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request:
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be possest.

9 Thou shalt them bruise ev'n like to that under foot are trod: (those
And as a potters vessel break
them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye, O Kings and Rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd,
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear:
See that with rev'rence ye rejoyce
when ye to him draw near.

12 See that ye kiss and do embrace
his Son without delay, Lest in his wrath ye suddenly perish from the right way.

13 If once his wrath never so small,
shall kindle in his breast:
Then only they that trust in Christ,
shall happy be and blest.

But thou, O Lord, art my defence, when I am hard beſtead:

My worſhip and mine honour both, and thou hold'ſt up my head.

4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill
did hear me inſtantly.
5 I laid me down, and quietly
I ſlept, and roſe again:
For why? I know aſſuredly,
the Lord will me ſuſtain.
6 If thouſands up againſt me riſe,
I will not be afraid:
For thou art ſtill my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.

Riſe up therefore, ſave me my God,

8 Salvation only doth belong

and grant me my request:
For unto thee incessantly,
to cry I will not rest.

3 O mortal men how long will ye my glory thus despise?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies?

4 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse:
And when to him I make complaint,
he doth me not refuse.

5 Sin not but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart;
And in your chamber quietly,
see you your selves convert.

6 Offer to God the sacrifice of righteousness and praise:
And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust always.

5 Such as be fooliſh ſhall not ſtand

Vain workers of iniquity
thou haſt always abhorr'd.

Their throat an open ſepulchre,
and tongues full of deceit.

10 Deſtroy their falſe conſpiracies,
that they may come to naught:
Subvert them in their heaps of ſin,
which have rebellion wrought.

11 But thoſe that put their truſt in

4 Lord turn thee to thy wonted
my fainting soul up take; (grace,
O save me not for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.

5 For why? no man among the dead
remembreth thee one whit:
Or who shall worship thee, O Lord,
in the infernal pit?

6 So grievous is my plaint and moan,
that I wax wondrous faint:
All the night long I wash my bed
with tears of my complaint.

7 My sight is dim, and waxeth old
with anguish of my heart,
For fear of them that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.

8 But now depart from me, all ye that work iniquity:
Because the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.

9 He

9 He heard not only the requeſt
and prayer of my heart:
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.

10 And now my foes that vexed me
the Lord will ſoon defame:
And ſuddenly confound them all,
with great rebuke and ſhame.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right,
Or elſe if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy ſight:

4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in diſtreſs,
Which me purſu'd moſt cruelly,
and hated me cauſeleſs:

5 Then let my foe purſue my ſoul,
let him my life down thruſt Unto the earth, and alſo lay mine honour in the duſt.

6 Stand up, O Lord, now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain:
Perform the Kingdom promised
to me which wrong sustain.

7 Then shall great nations come to (thee,
and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare for love of them,
thy self as Lord and King.

8 And as thou art of all men judge,
O Lord now judge thou me
According to my righteousness
and mine integrity.

The second part.

9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just man's guide:
10 By whom the secrets of all hearts
are searched and descry'd.

11 I take my help to come of God,
in all my pain and smart,
That doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.

12 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his pow'r:
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.

13 Except he change his mind, I die;
for even as he should smite,
He whets his sword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit.

14 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,
For them that do me persecute,
whilst he doth mischief warp.

15 But lo, though he in travail be
of his dev'lish forecast,
And of his mischief once conceiv'd,
yet brings forth naught at last.

16 He digs a ditch, and makes it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother:
But he shall fall into the pit
that he digg'd up for other.

17 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred,
And all the mischief that he wrought
shall fall on his own head.

18 I will give thanks to God there- (fore
that judgeth righteously,
And with my song will praise the
of him that is most high. (Name

O God our Lord, how wonderful are thy works ev'ry where,

Thy fame ſurmounts in dig--ni—ty above the heavens clear!

2 Ev'n by the mouth of ſucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in thoſe babes thy might is ſeen,
thy graces they diſcloſe.

3 And when I ſee the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand;
The ſun, the moon, and all the ſtars,
in order as they ſtand.

4 Lord, what is man that thou of him
tak'ſt ſuch abundant care?
Or what the ſon of man whom thou
to viſit doſt not ſpare?

5 For thou hadſt made him little leſs
than angels in degree:
And thou haſt alſo crown'd him with glory and dignity.

6 Thou haſt preferr'd him to be lord
of all thy works of wonder:
And at his feet haſt ſet all things,
that he ſhould keep them under.

7 As ſheep and neat, and all beaſts elſe,

O God thou art our Lord,
How famous and how wonderful,

And to the cleanness of my hands,
he gave me my reward:

And not departed wickedly
from him that is my God.

The third part.

21 But evermore I have respect

the strength of any wall.

29 Unspotted are the ways of God,
his word is purely try'd:
He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.
30 For who is God except the Lord?
for other there is none:
Or else who is omnipotent,
saving our God alone?

The fourth part.

31 The God that girdeth me with

That all the ways wherein I walk
did evermore keep clean.
32 That made my feet like to the 34 Thou teachest me thy saving thy right hand is my tow'r: (health, Thy love and gentleness also doth still increase my pow'r.

35 And under me thou makest plain
the way where I should go;
So that my feet shall never slip,
nor wander to and fro.
36 And fiercely I pursue and take
my foes that me annoy'd:
And from the field do not return
till they be all destroy'd.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes,
that they can rise no more;
For at my feet they fall down flat,
I strike them all so sore.
38 For thou dost gird me with thy to war in such a wise, (strength
That they be scatter'd all abroad
that up against me rise.

39 Lord, thou hast given me the necks
of all mine enemies,
That so I might destroy all those
that up against me rise.

40 They call'd for help, but none gave ear,
nor came to their relief:
Yea to the Lord they call'd for aid,
yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth part.

41 And still like dust before the wind,
I drive them under feet,
And sweep them out like filthy clay
that lieth in the street.
42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folk that still in strife are led:
And thou dost of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.

43 A people strange to me unknown,
and yet they shall me serve:
And at the first obey my word,
where is mine own will swerve.
44 I shall be irksome to mine own,
they will not see my light:
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.

45 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all praise,
That is my rock and saving-health,
praised be he always.
46 For God it is that gave me pow'r, revenged for to be,
And with his holy word subdu'd
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe deliver'd me,
and set me over those That cruel and ungodly were
and up against me rose.
48 And for this cause, O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall,
And sing out praises to thy Name
among the Gentiles all.
49 Deliv'rance great thou giv'st the king,
and dost me serve in store:
Mercy for thine Anointed, and his seed for evermore.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:

Bassus. Psalm 20. A. 3. Voc.

2 And send thee from his holy place
his help at every need,
And so in Sion stablish thee,
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice
that now to him is done:
And so receive most graciously thy burnt-offrings each one.

4 According to thy hearts desire
the Lord grant unto thee,
And all thy counsel and device
full well perform may he.

5 We shall rejoyce when thou us
and our banners display (sav'st, Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace,
And send him help by his right hand
out of his holy place.

7 In chariots some put confidence,
and some in horses trust:
But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.

Bassus. Psalm 21. A. 3. Voc.

O Lord, how joyful is the king in thy strength and thy pow'r!

Ex--ceed--ing—ly he doth rejoyce in thee his Sa—vi—our?

For thou hast gi—ven un—to him his god--ly heart's de-sire:

To him nothing thou hast deny'd of that he did require.

3 Thou didst prevent him with thy (gifts,
and blessings manifold,
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of beaten gold.
4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure,
To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid:
Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.
6 Thou wilt give him felicity
that never shall decay,
And with thy chearful countenance
wilt comfort him alway.

7 Because the King doth strongly (trust
in God for to prevail:
Therefore his goodness and his grace
to save him will not fail.
8 Thine enemies shall feel thy force,
and those that thee withstand Find out thy foes, and let them feel
the pow'r of thy right hand.

9 And like an oven burn them, Lord,
in fiery flame and fume:
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume. (earth 10 And thou shalt root out of the
their fruit that should increase:
And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.

11 For why? much mischief they con- (triv'd against thy holy Name:
Yet did they fail, and had no pow'r
for to perform the same.
12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place,
And charge thy bow-strings readily against their very face.

13 Be thou exalted, Lord, therefore in thy strength every hour:
So shall we sing right solemnly praising thy might and pow'r.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
immortal Glory be:
As was, is now, and shall be still
to all Eternity.

Cantus & Baſſus. PSALM XXII. Salisbury Tune.

Medius. Pſalm 22. A. 3. Voc.

Baſſus. Pſalm 22. A. 3. Voc.

2 To thee, my God, ev'n all day long
I do both and cry call:
I ceaſe not all the night, and yet
thou heareſt not at all.

3 But thou that in thy holy place
continually doſt dwell, Thou art the joy, the comfort and glory of Iſrael.

4 And he in whom our Fathers old,
had all their hope for ever: (thee
And when they put their truſt in thou didſt them ſtill deliver.

5 They were deliver'd ever when they called on thy Name:
And for the faith they had in thee
they were not put to ſhame.

6 But I am now become more like a worm than to a man:
An out-caſt whom the people ſcorn
with all the ſpite they can.

7 All men deſpiſe as they behold me walking on the way: (heads,
They grin, make mouths, & nod their
and on this wiſe do ſay,

8 This

8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love, Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.

9 But from the prison of the womb
I was by thee releast:
Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck the breast.

10 I was committed from my birth
with thee to have abode:
Since I was in my mother's womb,
thou hast been still my God.

The second part.

11 Then, Lord, depart not now from (me
in this my present grief,
Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.

12 So many bulls do compass me
that be full strong of head:
Yea bulls so fat as though they had in Basan field been fed.

13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay.
Much like a lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.

14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joynts in sunder break,
My heart doth in my body melt
like wax I am so weak.
(dry,

15 My strength doth like a potsherd
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last.

16 And many dogs do compass me,
in council they do meet:
Conspiring still against my life,
piercing my hands and feet.

17 I was tormented so that I might all my bones have told:
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.

18 My garments they divided have
in parts among them all:
And for my coat they did cast lots
to whom it might befall.

19 Therefore I pray thee be not far from me at my great need:
But rather, since thou art my strength,
to help me, Lord, make speed.
(soul

20 And from the sword save thou my
by thy might and thy pow'r:
And ever keep my darling dear
from dogs that would devour.
(would

21 And from the lion's mouth that me all in sunder shiver,
And from the horns of unicorns
Lord, safely me deliver.

22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy Majesty record: (Name
And in thy Church shall praise the of thee the living Lord.

The third part.

23 All ye that fear him praise the thou Jacob, honour him: (Lord,
And all ye seed of Israel
with rev'rence worship him.

24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he hideth not away
His countenance when they do call,
but hears them when they pray.

25 Among the folk that fear the Lord
I will therefore proclaim (made Thy praise, and keep my promise
for setting forth thy Name.

26 The poor shall eat and be suffic'd,
and those that do endeavour,
To know the L^d. shall praise his name,
their hearts shall live for ever.

27 The

27 The coasts of all the earth shall the Lord, and seek his grace: (praise
The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blessed face.

28 The kingdoms of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore:
And he shall be their Governour,
and King for evermore.

29 The rich men of his goodly gifts
shall feed and taste also:
And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.

30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste:
A seed shall serve and worship him
while any world shall last.

31 They shall declare, & plainly shew
his truth and righteousness Unto a people yet unborn,
who shall his Name confess.

Cantus & Bassus. PSALM XXIII. Canterbury Tune.

THE Lord is only my support, and he that doth me feed:

Medius. Psalm 23. A. 3. Voc.

THe Lord is on--ly my support, and he that doth me feed:

Bassus. Psalm 23. A. 3. Voc.

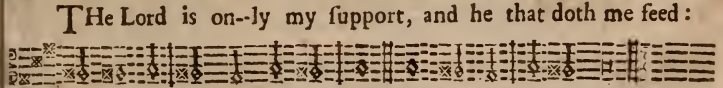
THe Lord is on--ly my support, and he that doth me feed:



How can I then lack a—ny thing whereof I stand in need:

2 He doth me fold in coats most safe,
the tender grass fast by:
And after drives me to the streams,
which run most pleasantly.

3 And

3 And when I feel my self near loſt
then doth he me home take,
Conducting me in his right paths
ev'n for his own Names ſake.

4 And thô I were ev'n at death's door,
yet would I fear none ill:
For with thy rod & ſhepherd's crook
I am comforted ſtill.

5 Thou haſt my table richly deckt
in deſpite of my foe: (freſht, Thou haſt my head with balm re-
my cup doth overflow.

6 And finally while breath doth laſt
thy grace ſhall me defend:
And in the houſe of God will I
my life for ever ſpend.

Pſalm 23. By another Author. Or to London Tune.

MY ſhepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need;
In paſtures fair, with waters calm,
he ſetteth me to feed.

2 He did convert and glad my ſoul,
and brought my mind in frame,
To walk in paths of righteouſneſs,
for his moſt holy Name.

3 Yea, thô I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill:
Thy rod and ſtaff do comfort me,
and thou art with me ſtill.

4 And in the preſence of my foes
my table thou ſhalt ſpread:
Thou ſhalt, O Lord, fill full my cup
and wilt anoint my head.

5 Through all my life thy favour is
ſo frankly ſhew'd to me,
That in thy houſe for evermore
my dwelling-place ſhall be.

Baſſus.

Bassus. Psalm 24. A. 3. Voc.

2 For he hath fastly founded it
above the seas to stand ;
And plac'd below the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.

3 Who is the man, O Lord, that shall ascend unto thy hill :
Or pass into thy holy place,
there to continue still ?

4 He that hath pure hands and heart,
which nothing doth defile :
His soul not set on vanity,
and hath not sworn to guile.

5 Him that is such a one, the Lord
most highly shall regard :
And from his God and Saviour shall receive a just reward.

6 This is the stock of travellers,
in seeking of his grace :
As Jacob did the Israelite,
in that time of his race.

7 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate :
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state ?

8 Who is the King of glorious state ?
the strong and mighty Lord,
The mighty Lord in battel stout,
and trial of the sword.

9 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate :
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state ?

10 Who is the King of glorious state ?
the Lord of hosts it is :
The kingdom and the royalty
of glorious state is his.

Medius.

Medius. Psalm 25. A. 3. Voc.

I Lift my heart to thee, my God and guide most just:

Now suffer me to take no shame, for in thee do I trust.

Bassus. Psalm 25. A. 3. Voc.

I Lift my heart to thee, my God and guide most just:

Now suffer me to take no shame, for in thee do I trust.

2 Let not my foes rejoyce,
nor make a scorn of me:
And let them not be overthrown,
that put their trust in thee.

3 But shame shall them befall,
which harm them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right-ways unto me, Lord, descry.

4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wait alway.

5 Thy mercies manifold remember, Lord, I pray:
Also thy pity plentiful,
for they have been alway.

6 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.

Nor after my deserts
let me thy mercy find:
But of thine own benignity,
Lord, have me in thy mind.

7 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach and such as go aside.

8 The humble he will teach his precepts to obey:
He will direct in all his paths
the lowly man alway.

9 For all the ways of God
both truth and mercy are,
To them that do his covenant
and statutes keep with care.

The second part.

10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord, I thee intreat,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
for it is wondrous great.

11 Whoso doth fear the Lord,
by him he shall be kept,
To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.

12 His soul shall evermore
in goodness dwell and stand,
His seed and his posterity inherit shall the land.

13 All

13 All those that fear the Lord,
know his secret intent:
And unto them he doth declare his will and testament.

14 Mine eyes and thankful heart
to him I will advance,
That pluck'd my feet out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.

15 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my mone:
For I am poor and desolate,
and comfortless alone.

16 The troubles of my heart
are multiply'd indeed: Bring me out of this misery,
necessity and need.

17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my pain:
Remit my sin and mine offence,
and make me clean again.

18 O Lord, behold my foes,
how they do still increase,
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that fain would live in peace.

19 Preserve and keep my soul,
and still deliver me:
And let me not be overthrown,
because I trust in thee.

20 Let mine integrity and uprightness still be,
My sure protection and defence,
because I wait on thee.

21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief,
I mean thy chosen Israel,
from all their pain and grief.

LOrd, be my judge, and thou ſhalt ſee my paths be right and plain:

I truſt in God, and hope that he with ſtrength will me ſuſtain.

2 Prove me, my God, I thee deſire,
my ways to ſearch and try:
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart eſpy.

3 Thy loving kindneſs in my ſight
I do behold always:
I ever walked in thy truth,
and will do all my days.

4 I do not love to haunt or uſe
with men whoſe deeds are vain:
To come in houſe I do refuſe
with the deceitful train.

5 I much abhor the wicked ſort,
their deeds I do deſpiſe:
I do not once to them reſort
that hurtful things deviſe.

6 My hands I waſh and do proceed
in works to walk upright:
Then to thine altar I make ſpeed,
to offer there in ſight.

My chief delight is to be near the place where thou doſt dwell.

Nor yet my life among thoſe men
that ſeek much blood to ſpill.

10 (is,
For in their hands much miſchief
their lives therewith abound:
And nothing elſe in their right hand
but bribes is to be found.

11 But I in righteouſneſs reſolve
my time and days to ſpend:
Therefore, that I may never ſwerve,
let thy grace me defend.

3 Thô they in camp against me lie,

4 One thing of God I do require,
that he will not deny:
For which I pray and will desire
till he to me apply:

5 That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell,
To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well.

6 In time of dread he shall me hide
within his place most pure,
And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.

7 At length I know the Lord's good

My foes to foil and clean deface,

to laud the Lord always.

The ſecond part.

9 Lord, hear the voice of my requeſt,
for which to thee I cry:
Have mercy, Lord, on me oppreſt,
And help me ſpeedily.

10 My heart confeſſeth unto thee,
I ſue to have thy grace:
Then ſeek my face, ſaidſt thou to me,
Lord, I will ſeek thy face.

11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor ſuffer me to ſlide:
Thou art my help ſtill to this day,
be ſtill my God and guide.

12 My parents both their ſon forſook,
and caſt me off at large:
Yet then the Lord himſelf did take
of me the care and charge.

13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right,
For fear of ſuch as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.

14 O leave me not unto the will
of them that be my foes,
For they ſurmiſe againſt me ſtill

That in the land wherein I live

3 His voice doth rule the waters all,
even as himself doth please:
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,

4 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend and break
the cedar-trees so long:
The cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong-

or as a unicorn:
Not only trees but mountains great,
whereon the trees are born.

7 His voice divides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:

8 It makes the desart quake for fear,
that called is Cades.

9 It makes the hinds for fear to calve,
and makes the coverts plain:
And in his temple every man
his glory doth proclaim.

10 The Lord doth move the angry floods,
their fury to restrain:
And he likewise as Lord and King

whereby they shall encrease:

didst send me strength and aid:
But when thou turn'st away thy face,
my mind was sore dismaid.

8 Wherefore again then did I cry
to thee, O Lord of might:
And my complaints did multiply praying both day and night.

9 What gain is in my blood, said I,
if death destroy my days?

Lo, I am clean cast out of sight,
yet heard'st thou my request.

23 Ye saints, love ye the Lord alway
the faithful he doth guide;
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.

24 Be of good courage evermore,
on God your strength depend:
For those that put their trust in him
he ever will defend.

Baſſus. Pſalm 32. A. 3. Voc.

THe man is bleſt, whoſe wickedneſs the Lord doth clean paſs by:

And he whoſe ſin is likewiſe hid, and cover'd ſe-cret-ly.

And bleſt is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his ſin:
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

For whilſt that I kept cloſe my ſin
in ſilence and conſtraint,
My bones did wear and waſte away
with daily moan and plaint.

For night and day thy hand on me
ſo grievous was and ſmart;
That all my blood & humours moiſt
to drineſs did convert.

I did therefore confeſs my fault
and all my ſins diſcover:
Then thou, O Lord, didſt me forgive,
and all my ſins paſs over.

(fore,
The humble man ſhall pray there-
and ſeek thee in due time:
So that the floods of waters great ſhall have no power on him.

7 When trouble and adverſity
do compaſs me about,
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou doſt rid me out.

8 Come hither, and I will thee teach
how thou ſhalt walk aright:
I will thee guide as I my ſelf
have learn'd by proof and ſight.

9 Be not ſo rude and ignorant
as is the horſe and mule, Whoſe mouth without a rein or bit
from harm thou canſt not rule.

10 The wicked man ſhall manifold ſorrows and griefs ſuſtain:
But unto him that truſts in God,
his goodneſs ſhall remain.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye juſt lift up your voice:
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
with chearfulneſs rejoyce.

Al--so my mouth for evermore shall speak unto his praise.

2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in soul, in heart, and voice:
That humble men and mortify'd
may hear and so rejoyce.

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord, Let us exalt his holy Name
always with one accord.

4 For I my self besought the Lor
he answer'd me again,
And me deliver'd instantly
from all my fear and pain.

This poor distressed man for help
unto the Lord did call;
Who did him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall,

The angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place,
To save all such as do him fear,
that nothing them deface.

Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and just:
happy man that maketh him
his only stay and trust.

Fear ye the Lord, ye holy ones,
above all earthly thing:
For they that fear the living Lord,
are sure to lack nothing.

The lions shall be hunger-bit,
and pin'd with famine much:
But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second part.

Come near to me, my Children dear,
and to my words give ear:
I will you teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord shall fear.

Who is the man that would live long,
and lead a godly life?
See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.

Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed:
Require for peace and quietness,
and follow it with speed.

15 For why? the eyes of God above
upon the just are bent.
His ears likewise to hear the cry
of the poor innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his brows
upon the wicked train:
And cuts away the memory
that should of them remain.

17 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them so,
That out of pain and misery
forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is ever nigh to them
that broken hearted are:
And for the contrite spirit he salvation doth prepare.

19 Full many be the miseries
that righteous men endure:
But of deliverance from them all the Lord doth them secure.

20 The Lord doth so preserve & keep their very bones alway,
That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.

21 The sin shall slay the wicked man,
which he himself hath wrought:
And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
are ever safe and sound:
And as for those that trust in him
nothing shall them confound.

that are both stout and strong:

As they had been my brethren dear

about his mother's grave.

But they in mine adversity

at me did mock and flout.

The belly-gods & flattering train,
that all good things deride,
me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouths aside.

L^d, when wilt thou for me appear?
why dost thou stay and pause?
rid my soul, mine only dear,
out of these lions claws.

And then will I give thanks to Let not my foes prevail on me,

which hate me for no fault:
or let them wink or turn their eye,

The third part.

21 Of peace no word they think or (say,
their talk is all untrue:
They still consult and would betray
all those that peace ensue.

22 With open mouth they run at me,
their fury is like fire:

23 But, L^d, thou seest what ways they
and what they do intend: (take,
Be not far off, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.

24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right:
Revenge my cause, O Lord my God,
and aid me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God set me free:
And let them not their pride express,
nor triumph over me.

26 Let not their hearts rejoyce & cry,
even so we would it have:
Nor give them cause to say on high,
he's sunk into the grave.

27 Confound them with rebuke and that joy when I do mourn: (shame,
And pay them home with spite and that brag at me with scorn. (blame,

28 Let them most heartily rejoyce,
which love mine upright way:
Let them all times with heart & voice
still praise the Lord, and say,

29 Great is the Lord, and doth excel,
and he doth much delight
To see his servants prosper well,
it is his pleasant sight.

30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply
thy righteousness to praise:
To thee the Lord my God will I

THou, Lord, hast been our sure defence, our place of ease and rest

In all times past, yea so long since as cannot be express'd.

Bassus. Psalm 90. A. 3. Voc

THou, Lord, hast been our sure defence, our place of ease and rest:

In all times past, yea so long since as cannot be express'd.

2 Before was made mountain or the earth and world abroad: (hill,
From age to age and always still, for ever thou art God. (and pain,

3 Thou grindest man thro' grief to dust or clay, and then Thou unto them dost say again, Return ye sons of men.

4 The lasting of a thousand years, what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appear, or as a watch by night.

5 So soon as thou dost scatter them then is their life and trade
Ev'n as a sleep, or like the grass, whose beauty soon doth fade. (bright

6 Which in the morning shines ful but fadeth suddenly:
And is cut down before the night all wither'd, dead and dry.

7 For thro' thy anger we consume, our might is much decay'd:
And of thy fervent wrath, O Lord we are full sore afraid.

8 The

8 The wicked works that we have (wrought
thou ſett'ſt before thine eye :
Our privy faults, ye, all our thoughts
thy countenance doth ſpy.

9 For thro' thy wrath our days do (waſte
therefore doth nought remain :
Our years conſume as doth a blaſt,
and are not call'd again.

10 The time of our abode on earth,
is threeſcore years and ten :
But if we come to fourſcore years,
our life is grievous then.

The Second Part.

11 For of this time the ſtrength and (chief
we dote ſo much upon,
's nothing elſe but pain and grief,
and we as blaſts are gone.

12 What man doth know what pow'r (and what might thine anger hath ?
Or in his heart who doth thee fear
according to thy wrath ?

13 Inſtruct us, Lord, to know and try
how long our days remain :
That ſo we may our hearts apply
true wiſdom to attain.

14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt (thou
in thy great wrath proceed ?
Shew favour to thy ſervants now,
and help them at their need.

15 Refreſh us with thy mercy ſoon,
and then moſt chearfully,
All times ſo long as life doth laſt,
in heart rejoyce will we.

16 As thou haſt plagued us before,
now alſo make us glad :
And for the years wherein full ſore affliction we have had.

17 O let thy work and pow'r appear,
and on thy ſervants light :
And ſhew unto thy children dear
thy glory and thy might.

18 Lord, let thy grace and glory ſtand
on us thy ſervants thus :
Confirm the works we take in hand,
and proſper them to us.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt,
immortal Glory be :
As was, is now, and ſhall be ſtill,
to all Eternity.

Baſſus. Pſalm 91. A. 3. Voc.

HE that within the ſecret place of God moſt high doth dwell:

Under the ſhadow of his grace he ſhall be ſafe and well.

2 Thou art my hope and my ſtrong-hold,
I to the Lord will ſay:
My God he is, in him will I
my whole affiance ſtay.

3 He ſhall defend thee from the ſnare
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care
whereof thou art afraid:

4 And with his wings ſhall cover thee
and keep thee ſafely there:
His faith & truth thy fence ſhall be
as ſure as ſhield and ſpear.

5 So that thou never ſhalt have cauſe
to fear or be affright,
For all the ſhafts that fly by day,
or terrors of the night.

6 Nor of the plague that privily
doth walk in darkneſs faſt:
Nor yet of that which doth deſtroy,
and at noon-day doth waſte.

7 Yea, at thy ſide as thou doſt ſtand,
a thouſand dead ſhall be:
Ten thouſand more at thy right-hand,
and yet ſhalt thou be free.

8 But thou ſhalt ſee it for thy part,
thy eyes ſhall well regard:
According unto their deſert
the wicked have reward.

9 For why? O Lord, I only reſt,
and fix my hope on thee:
In the moſt high I put my truſt,
my ſure defence is he.

10 No evil thou ſhalt need to fear,
with thee it ſhall go well:
No plague ſhall ever once come near
the houſe where thou doſt dwell.

11 For why? unto his Angels all with charge commanded he,
That ſtill in all thy ways they ſhall
preſerve and proſper thee.

12 And in their hands ſhall bear thee up,
ſtill waiting thee upon:
Leſt that thy foot ſhould happen for
to daſh againſt a ſtone.

13 Upon the lion thou ſhalt go,
the adder fell and long:
On the young lions tread alſo,
with dragons ſtout and ſtrong.

14 Becauſe

14 Because he sets his love on me,
I'll save him by my might:
And him advance because that he doth know my Name aright.

15 When he for help to me doth cry,
an answer I will give:
And from his grief take him will I
in glory for to live.

16 With length of days and years I will him fully satisfie:
And also my salvation still shew him assuredly.

before the day be light:
And to declare his truth abroad
when it doth draw to night.

3 Upon ten stringed instrument,
on lute and harp so sweet:
With all the mirth you can invent
of instruments most mete.

4 For thou hast made me to rejoyce
in things so wrought by thee:
That I have joy in heart and voice
thy handy works to see.

5 O L^d, how glorious & how great
are all thy works so stout!
So deeply are thy councils set,
that none can find them out.

6 The man unwise hath not the wit
this work to pass to bring;
And all such fools are nothing fit
to understand this thing.

7 When as the wicked at their will like grass do spring full fast;
And when they flourish in their ill,
they all for ever waste.

8 But thou art mighty, L^d, most high,
and thou dost reign therefore
In every time eternally,
both now and evermore.

9 Behold, O Lord, thine enemies
shall be destroy'd alway:
And all that work iniquity
shall perish and decay.

10 But thou like as an unicorn,
shalt lift thine horn on high;
With fresh and new prepared oyl anointed King am I.

11 And of my foes before mine eyes shall see the fall and shame:
Of all that up against me rise,
mine ears shall hear the same.

12 The just shall flourish up on high
as palm-trees bud and blow:
And as the cedars multiply
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place
and dwelling of our God:
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age much fruit shall both fat and well beseen: (bring,
And pleasantly both bud & spring,
with boughs and branches green.

Medius.

Medius. Pſalm 104. A. 3. Voc.

Baſſus. Pſalm 104. A. 3. Voc.

2 With light as a robe,
thou haſt thy ſelf clad,
Whereby all the earth
thy greatneſs may ſee:
The heavens in ſuch ſort
thou alſo haſt ſpread,
That it to a curtain
compared may be.

3 His chamber-beams lie
in the clouds full ſure,
Which as his chariots
are made him to bear;
And there with much ſwiftneſs
his courſe doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of winds in the air.

4 He maketh his ſpirits
as heralds to go;
And lightning to ſerve
we ſee alſo preſt;
His will to accompliſh
they run to and fro,
To ſave or conſume things
as ſeemeth him beſt.

5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and faſt,
That it once to move
none ſhall have ſuch pow'r.
6 The deep a fair covering for it made thou haſt:
Which by his own nature
the hills would devour.

7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee:
And ſo give due place
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
ſo fearful they be,
That in their great raging
they haſte ſoon away,

8 The mountains full high
they then up aſcend,
If thou do but ſpeak,
thy word they fulfill.
So likewiſe the valleys
moſt quickly deſcend,
Where thou them appointeſt remain they do ſtill.

9 Their bounds thou haſt ſet
how far they ſhall run;
So that in their rage
not that paſs they can.
For God hath appointed
they ſhall not return
The earth to deſtroy more,
which made was for man.

The Second Part.

10 He ſendeth the ſprings
to ſtrong ſtreams or lakes,
Which run do full ſwift
among the huge hills:
11 where both the wild aſſes
their thirſt oft-times ſlakes,
And beaſts of the mountains thereof drink their fills.

12 By theſe pleaſant ſprings
of fountains full fair,
The fowls of the air
abide ſhall and dwell:
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches
their ſongs ſhall excel.

13 The mountains to moiſt
the clouds he doth uſe;
The earth with his works
is wholly replete.
14 So as the brute cattel
he doth not refuſe;
But graſs doth provide them,
and herb for man's meat.

15 Yea, bread, wine, and oyl
he made for man's ſake,
His face to refreſh,
and heart to make ſtrong.
16 The cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make;
Which trees he doth nouriſh
that grow up ſo long.

17 In theſe many birds build and make there their neſts:
In fir-trees the ſtorks remain and abide.
18 The high hills are ſuccours
for wild goats to reſt:
Alſo the rock ſtony
for conies to hide.

19 The moon then is ſet
her ſeaſons to run:
The days from the nights
thereby to diſcern:
And by the deſcending
alſo of the ſun,
The cold from heat alway thereby we do learn.

20 When darkneſs doth come
by Gods will and pow'r,
Then creep forth do all
the beaſts of the wood.
21 The lions range roaring their prey to devour,
But yet it is thou, Lord,
which giveſt them food.

22 As

22 As ſoon as the ſun
is up they retire;
To couch in their dens
then are they full fain:
23 That man to his work may,
as right doth require,
Till night come and call him
to take reſt again.

The third Part.

24 How ſundry, O Lord,
are all thy works found?
With wiſdom full great
they are indeed wrought:
So that the whole world
of thy praiſe doth ſound;
And as for thy riches,
they paſs all mens thought.

25 So is the great ſea
which large is and broad,
Where things that creep ſwarm
and beaſts of each ſort.
26 Their mighty ſhips ſail,
and ſome lie at rode:
The whale huge and monſtrous
there alſo doth ſport.

27 All things on thee wait,
thou doſt them relieve:
And thou in due time
full well doſt them feed 28 Now when it doth pleaſe thee
the ſame for to give,
They gather full gladly
thoſe things which they need.

Thou open'ſt thy hand,
and they find ſuch grace,
That they with good things
are filled we ſee.

29 But ſore are they troubled
if thou turn thy face:
For if thou their breath take vile duſt then they be.

30 Again when thy ſpirit
from thee doth proceed
All things to appoint,
and what ſhall enſue:
Then are they created
as thou haſt decreed:
And doſt by thy goodneſs
the dry earth renew.

31 The praiſe of the Lord
for ever ſhall laſt,
Who may in his works
by right well rejoice.
32 His look can the earth make
to tremble full faſt,
And likewiſe the mountains
to ſmoke at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God
ſing will I always;
So long as I live,
my God praiſe will I.
34 Then am I moſt certain
my words ſhall him pleaſe:
I will rejoice in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The ſinners, O Lord,
conſume in thine ire:
Alſo the perverſe,
them root out with ſhame,
But as for my ſoul now,
let it ſtill deſire
And ſay with the faithfull, Praiſe ye the Lords Name.

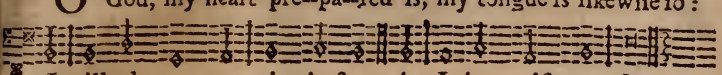
O God, my heart pre--pa--red is, my tongue is likewise so:



I will advance my voice in song, that I thy praise may show.

2 Awake my viol and my harp
sweet melody to make;
And in the morning I my self
right early will awake.

3 By me among the people, Lord,
still praised thalt thou be;
And I among the heathen folk
will praises sing to thee.

4 Because thy mercy doth ascend above the heavens high:
Also thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the lofty sky.

5 Above the starry heavens high exalt thy self O God:
Display likewise upon the earth
thy glory all abroad.

be set at liberty, (hand
Help, O my God, with thy right
and hearken unto me.

7 God in his holiness hath spoke
wherefore my joys abound;
Sichem I will divide and mete

8 And Gilead shall be mine own, Manasses mine shall be;
My head strength Ephraim and law
shall Judah give to me.

9 Moab my wash-pot and my shoo
on Edom will I throw:
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.

10 Who to the city strong shall be leader and guide to me
Also by whom to Edoms land conveyed shall I be.

11 Is it not thou, O Lord, which late hadst us forsaken quite?
And thou also which with our hosts
didst not go forth to fight?

12 Give us O Lord, thy saving aid
when troubles do assail:
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.

32 Then will I run moſt joyfully,
where thy word doth me call;
When thou haſt ſet my heart at large and rid me out of thrall.

He. The Fifth Part.

33 Inſtruct me, Lord, in the right of thy ſtatutes divine; (way
And them to keep unto the end,
my heart will I incline.
34 Grant me the knowledge of thy

With heart & mind, & all my might
I will it keep alway.

35 In the right paths of thy precepts guide me, Lord, I require;
None other pleaſure do I wiſh,
nor greater thing deſire.
36 Incline my heart thy laws to keep
and cov'nants to imbrace:
And from all filthy avarice,
Lord, ſhield me with thy grace;

37 From vain deſires & worldly luſts
turn back mine eyes and ſight:
Give me the ſp'rit of life and pow'r,
to walk thy ways aright.
38 Confirm thy gracious promiſe Ld
which thou haſt made to me;
Which am thy ſervant and do love,
and fear nothing but thee.

39 Reproach and ſhame which I do
from me, O Lord, expel: (fear,
For thou doſt judge with equity,
and therein doſt excel.
40 Behold, my hearts deſire is bent,
thy laws to keep alway; (grace, Lord, ſtrengthen me ſo with thy that it perform I may.

Vau. The sixth part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold,
let me obtain, O Lord;
Thy saving health let me enjoy,
according to thy word.
42 So shall I stop the slandorus (mouths
of leud men and unjust:
For in thy faithful promises,
stands my comfort and trust.

43 The word of truth within my (mouth
let ever still be prest;
For in thy judgments wonderful
my hope doth stand and rest.
44 And whilst that breath within me
this nat'ral life preserve, (doth Yea, till this world shall be dissolv'd thy law I will observe.

45 So walk will I as set at large,
from dread and danger free;
Because I study how to keep
thy precepts faithfully.
46 Thy noble acts I will describe,
as things of most great fame;
Ev'n before kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.

47 I will rejoyce then to obey
thy just commands and will:
Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still.
48 My hands I will lift to thy laws
which I have dearly sought,
And practice thy commandements
in will, in deed and thought.

Zain. The seventh part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st
remember, Lord, I pray: (to me,
For therein have I put my trust
and confidence alway.
50 It is my comfort and my joy
when troubles me assail;
For were my life not by thy word,
it suddenly would fail.

51 The proud & such as God con- (temn
still made of me a scorn;
Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as if I were forlorn:

(work
52 But call'd to mind, Lord, thy great shew'd to our fathers old;
Whereby I feel my joy surmount
my grief an hundred fold.

53 Horror hath taken hold on me because the wicked do Forsake thy righteous law and will have no regard thereto.
54 But as for me, I fram'd my song
thy statutes to exalt,
When I among the strangers dwelt
and grief did me assault.

55 I thought upon thy Name, O Lord
by night when others sleep:
Thy law also I kept always,
and ever will it keep.
56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants most dear
I did embrace and also keep with reverence and fear.

Cheth. The eighth part.

57 O God which art my part and lot
my comfort and my stay,
I have decreed and promised,
thy laws to keep alway.
58 Mine earnest heart did humbly
In presence of thy face: (sue
As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord, grant to me thy grace.

59 My life I have examined,
and try'd my secret heart:
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet streight to convert.
60 I did not stay nor linger long as they that slothful are;
But hastily thy laws to keep
I did my self prepare.

61 The cruel bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey;
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.
62 Thy righteous laws & judgments
so very great and high: (are Then even at midnight I will rise
thy Name to magnifie.

63 I am

63 I am companion to all them,
which fear thee in their heart;
And never will for love nor dread,
from thy commandments ſtart.
64 Thy mercies, L^d, moſt plenteouſly
the earth throughout do fill?
O teach me how I may obey,
thy ſtatutes and thy will.

Teth. The ninth part.

65 According to thy promiſe, Lord,
ſo haſt thou with me dealt;
For of thy grace in ſundry ſorts,
have I thy ſervant felt.
66 Teach me to judge always aright,
and give me knolwedge ſure:
For certainly I do believe,
thy precepts are moſt pure.

67 Before that I afflicted was,
I err'd and went aſtray:
But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my ſtay.
68 Thou art both good and gracious,
giving moſt lib'rally:
Thine ordinances how to keep,
therefore, O Lord, teach me.

69 The proud and the ungodly have againſt me forg'd a lie:
Yet thy commandments ſtill ob-
with all my heart will I. (ſerve, 70 Their heart are ſwolnwth worldly they are exceeding fat: (wealth,
But in thy law I do delight,
and nothing ſeek but that.

71 O happy time may I well ſay,
when thou didſt me correct:
For as a guide to learn thy laws,
thy rod did me direct.
72 So that to me thy word and law,
is dearer many fold:
Than thouſands of ſilver and gold,
or ought that can be told.

Jod. The tenth Part.

73 Thy hands have made & faſhion'd thy creature for to be: (me,
Make me to underſtand thy law,
and keep it faithfully.

74 So they that fear thee ſhall rejoyce
whenever they may ſee:
Becauſe I have learn'd by thy word,
to put my truſt in thee.

75 When with thy rods the world is
I know the cauſe is juſt: (plagu'd
So when thou doſt correct me, Lord,
the cauſe right needs be muſt.
76 Now of thy goodneſs I thee pray,
ſome comfort to me ſend:
And as thou haſt me hitherto,
O Lord, ſtill me defend.

77 Thy tender mercies pour on me,
and I ſhall ſurely live,
For joy and conſolation both,
thy law to me doth give.
78 Confound the proud, who do me
perverſly to deſtroy: (ſeek
But as for me thy laws to know,
I will my ſelf employ.

79 Whoſo with rev'rence do thee
to them let me retire: (fear,
And ſuch as do thy cov'nants know,
and them alone deſire.
80 My heart without all wavering,
let on thy laws be bent:
That no confuſion come to me,
nor any diſcontent.

Caph. The eleventh Part.

81 My ſoul doth faint & ceaſeth not thy ſaving health to crave:
And for thy words ſake ſtill I truſt
my hearts deſire to have.
82 Mine eyes do fail with looking thy word, and thus I ſay, (for Oh when wilt thou me comfort, L^d,
why doſt thou thus delay?

83 Like as a bottle in the ſmoke,
ſo am I parcht and dry'd,
Yet will I not out of my heart,
let thy commandments ſlide.
84 How long, O Lord, ſhall I yet
before I ſee the hour, (live
That on my foes which me torment
thy vengeance thou wilt pour?

85 Preſumptuous men have digged thinking to make me ſure: (pits,
Thus contrary unto thy law,
my hurt they do procure. (true, 86 But thy commandements are all
and cauſeleſs they me grieve;
To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou may'ſt me relive.
(ſtroy'd,
87 Almoſt they had me clean de-
and brought me quite to ground
Yet by thy ſtatutes I abode,
and therein ſuccour found.
88 Reſtore me, Lord, again to life,
for thy mercies excel:
And ſo ſhall I thy cov'nants keep,
till death my life expel.

Lamed. The Twelfth part.

89 Inheav'n, O Lord, where thou doſt thy word is ſtabliſht ſure: (dwell
And ſhall to all eternity,
faſt ſettled there endure.
90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witneſs;

as no tongue can expreſs. (ſo ſure

91 Ev'n to this day we may well ſee
how thou doſt them preſerve:
According to thy ordinance,
for all things do the ſerve.
92 Had it not been that in thy law,
my ſoul had comfort ſought,
Long time e'er now in my diſtreſs,
I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts in memory full faſt: (keep Becauſe that thou by them, O Lord,
my life reſtored haſt.
94 No man to me can title make,
for I am only thine;
Save me therefore, for to thy laws,
mine ears and heart incline.

95 The wicked men that ſeek my for me do lie in wait; (bane
But I will meditate upon,
thy teſtimonies great.

96 For nothing in this world I ſee,
which hath at length no end;
But thy commandments & thy word
beyond all time extend.

Mem. The Thirteenth Part.

98 Thy word hath taught me to ex-

Becauſe I do thy cov'nants keep,
and them to others tell.
100 In Wiſdom I do far ſurpaſs,
the ancient men alſo;

101 My feet I have refrain'd likewiſe
from every evil way;
That ſo I might thy word obſerve
and keep without delay. (ſwerv'd

nor ſhrunk as thou canſt tell:
For why? thou haſt me taught there-

Doubtleſs no honey in my mouth
doth taſte ſo ſweet as they.

All wicked and ungodly ways,
in every kind or rate.

Nun. The fourteenth part.

it is a flaming light. (form 106 I have both ſworn and will per-

great dangers me aſſail:
Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will fail.
110 Altho' the wicked laid their

Yet did I not from thy precepts
once ſwerve or go aſtray.

111 Thy law, O Lord, I taken have mine heritage to be:

it doth afford to me.
112 For evermore I have been bent
thy ſtatutes to fulfill;
Ev'n ſo likewiſe unto the end
I will continue ſtill.

Samech. The fifteenth part.

But for thy precepts and thy laws,
I love them ever beſt.
114 Thou art my hid & ſecret place,
my ſhield and ſtrong defence:
Therefore have I thy promiſes
lookt for with patience.

115 Therefore ye evil-doers all away from me be gone:
For the commandments will I keep
of God my Lord alone.
116 As thou haſt promis'd ſo perform that I may live, and be Never aſhamed of the hope which thou haſt given me.

117 Uphold me and I ſhall be ſafe

will I both night and day.

grant me to underſtand,
How by thy ſtatutes I may know
beſt what to take in hand.
126 It is now time, Lord, to begin,
for truth doth quite decay:
Thy law likewiſe they have made and none doth it obey. (void,

127 This is the cauſe wherefore I love
thy laws much more than gold,
Or jewels fine which are eſteem'd moſt coſtly to be ſold. (juſt,

and ſo them kept in ſtore:
All crafty and malicious ways
I greatly do abhor.

continually do fall;

thy laws keep not at all.

most constant and most pure.

Thy testimonies then will I

As thou wast wont, so quicken me,

150 My foes draw near, and greedily
do after mischief run:
From thy law they are far gon back,

what tongue can them explain?
According to thy judgments good,
let me my life obtain.

157 Tho' many men did trouble me,
and perſecute me ſore,
Yet from thy laws I never ſhrunk,
nor went aſide therefore.
158 The great tranſgreſſors I beheld
with great anxiety;
Becauſe they did not keep thy word,
nor ever ſeek to thee.

159 Behold how I do love thy laws
with a moſt upright heart:
Then quicken me, O Lord, for thou
moſt good and gracious art.

Thy right'ous judgments ev'ry one

Schin. The twenty firſt part.

161 Princes have perſecuted me
without a cauſe, but ſaw
It was in vain, for of thy word
my heart did ſtand in awe.

162 And ſurely of thy word I was more joyful and more glad,
Than he that of rich ſpoils & prey,
great ſtore and plenty had.

163 But as for lies and falſities,
them I hate and deteſt Becauſe thy holy law I do
above all things love beſt.
164 Ten times a day I praiſe the Ld,
ſinging with heart and voice:

have kept with heart upright; (I

170 O let my ſupplication
have free acceſs to thee;
And grant me, Lord, deliverance,
as thou haſt promis'd me.

173 Stretch

173 Stretch out thy hand, I thee beseech,
and speedily me save;
For thy commandments to observe chosen, O Lord, I have.
174 Of thee alone, Ld I crave health,
for other I know none:
And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.
175 Grant me therefore long days
thy Name to magnifie: (to live
And of thy judgments merciful
let me thy favour try.
176 For I was lost and went astray
much like a wandring sheep;
Oh! seek me, for I have not fail'd thy statutes for to keep.

And Jeſus Chriſt his only Son,
Whoſe pure conception
Did by the Holy Spirit come,
Born in the Virgin's womb.

He under Pilate crucifi'd,
Suffer'd for us and di'd,
Was buri'd, went to hell beneath:
The third day 'roſe from death.

He into heaven did aſcend,
And ſits at God's right hand:
From thence he ſhall come down with dread
To judge both quick & dead:

In the Holy Ghoſt believe:
The Cath'lick Church receive,
The Saints in one communion join'd,
That ſins forgiveneſs find:

That theſe our bodies from the grave,
A Reſurrection have
And ſhall enjoy a life of bliſs,

Cant. & Baſſ. The Ten Comandments. Or to 100 Pſ. Tune.

GOD ſpake theſe words, I am the L^d who thee to liberty reſtor'd

And did from Egypt's bondage free: 1 Thou ſhalt adore no God but me.

And did from Egypt's bondage free: 1 Thou shalt adore no God but me.

Bassus. The Ten Commandments. A. 3. Voc.

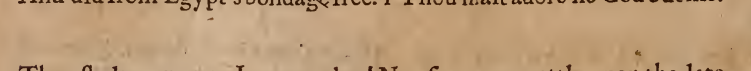
GOD spake these words, I am the Lord who thee to liberty restor'd :



And did from Egypt's bondage free: 1 Thou shalt adore no God but me.

2 Thou shalt no graven Image make,
Nor any other likeness take,
In heav'n or earth, or seas below,
To which thou may'st fall down & bow.
For jealous of mine honour, I Unto the fourth posterity
Visit the children for the sin
Which have by fathers acted been.

Yet I my mercies heap in store
For thousand generations more
Of them that love me whose intents
Walk after my commandements.

3 Thou shalt by swearing not profane
Nor take thy Maker's Name in vain,
For God will no man guiltless deem,
Who doth his sacred Name blas-(pheme.

4 Remember that to rest and pray
Thou holy keep the Sabbath-day:
Six days thou labour shalt, but this
The L^d thy God's high Sabbath is:

No kind of work shall then be done
By thee, thy daughter, or thy son;
Nor servants, cattle, nor the late Admitted stranger to thy gate.

For God in six days all things made,
And resting on the seventh stay'd:
The Sabbath day he therefore blest,
Appointing it a day of Rest.

5 Honour thy Parents and obey
What just commands soe'er they lay,
That in the land thou long may'st live,
Which God doth for thy dwelling (give.

6 From bloody Acts and Murder fly.
7 Commit no foul Adultery (where 8 Thou shalt not steal. 9 Nor any False witness 'gainst thy neibor bear. (strife, 10 Thou shalt not, mov'd by lust or Covet thy neighbours house or wife,
Nor man, nor maid, nor ox of his,
Nor what to him belonging is.

The PRAYER.

THE Spirit of grace grant us, OL^d,
To keep these laws our hearts restore:
And cause us all with one accord
To magnifie thy Name therefore.

For

For of ourſelves no ſtrength we have To keep theſe laws after thy will:
Thy might therefore, O Chriſt we crave
That we in thee may them fulfill.
Lord for thy Name's ſake grant us (this, Thou art our ſtrength. O Saviour (Chriſt:

Of thee to ſpeed how ſhould we miſs,
In whom our treaſure doth conſiſt?

To thee for evermore be praiſe,
With the Father in each reſpect,
And with the Holy Spir't always,
The comforter of thine Elect.

Hum-

Cantus & Baſſus. Humble Suit of a Sinner. Or to Windſor Tune.

Medius. An Hymn. A. 3. Voc.

Bassus. An Hymn. A. 3. Voc.

O Lord, on whom I do depend, behold my careful heart:

And when thy will and pleasure is, release me of my smart:

Thou see'st my sorrows what they are, my grief is known to thee:

And there is none that can remove, or take the same from me.

But only thou, whose aid I crave,
whose mercy still is prest
To ease all those that come to thee
for succour and for rest. (eyes,
And since thou see'st my restless
my tears and grievous groan;
Attend unto my suit, O Lord,
mark my complaint and moan:

For sin hath so inclosed me,
and compass'd me about,
That I am now remediless,
if mercy help not out.
For mortal man cannot release,
or mitigate this pain: (God,
But ev'n thy Christ, my Lord and who for my sins was slain.
(see,
Whose bloody wounds are yet to
tho' not with mortal eye:
Yet do thy saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Tho' sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good
I shall enjoy the sight of him who shed for me his blood.

And as thine angels and thy saints
do now behold the same:
So trust I to possess that place,
with them that praise thy Name,
But whilst I live here in this vail
where sinners do frequent, Assist me ever with thy grace,
my sins still to lament:

Least that I tread the sinners trace,
and give them my consent
To dwell with them in wickedness
whereto nature is bent.
Only thy grace must be my stay,
let that with me remain:
For if I fall then of my self
I cannot rise again.

Wherefore this is yet once again
my suit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise, (saints
And in thy Church and house of sing Psalms to thee always.

Shut not thy gate againſt me, Lord,
but let me enter in.

And call me not to ſtrict account
how I have lived here :
For then I know right well, O Lord,
how vile I ſhall appear.

I need not to confeſs my life,
I am ſure thou canſt tell :
What I have been, and what I (am,
I know thou know'ſt it well.

O Lord, thou know'ſt what things (be paſt, alſo the things that be :
Thou know'ſt alſo what is to come,

Before the heav'ns and earth were (made

And

And can the things that I have done

No, no, thou know'ſt them all, O
where they were done and when.

Wherefore with tears I come to thee
to beg and to intreat;
Ev'n as the child that hath done ill,
and feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
where mercy doth abound, Deſiring mercy for my ſin,
to heal my deadly wound.

O Lord, I need not to repeat
what I do beg or crave:
Thou know'ſt O Lord before I ask
the things that I would have.

Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask,
this is the total ſum:
For mercy, Lord, is all my ſuit,
Lord let thy mercy come.

Baſſus. An Hymn. A. 3. Voc.

O Lord, in thee is all my truſt, give ear unto my woful cry:

Refuſe me not that am unjuſt, but caſt on me thy heav'nly eye.

Behold how I do ſtill lament my ſins, wherein I do offend:

Shall I for them have puniſhment, ſince thee to pleaſe I do intend:

No, no thy will is not ſo bent
to deal with ſinners in thine ire:
But whenin heart they ſhall repent,
thou grant'ſt with ſpeed their juſt deſire:
To thee therefore ſtill will I cry,
to waſh away my ſinful crime:
Thy blood, O Lord, is not yet dry,
but that it may help me in time.

Haſte thee, O Lord, haſte thee, I ſay,
to pour on me thy gifts of grace;
That when this life ſhall paſs away,
in heav'n with thee I may have place.
Where thou doſt reign eternally
with God, with once did down thee ſend:
Where Angels ſing continually
to thee be praiſe world without end.

Baſſus. An Hymn. A. 3. Voc.

'hate'er we have, whate'er we are,
thy bounty freely gave:

But O! can all our ſtore afford
no better gifts for thee!
Thus we confeſs thy riches, Lord,

'Tis

'Tis not our tongue or knee can pay
the mighty debt we owe:
For more we should than we can say,
far lower than we bow.
Come then my soul, bring all thy (powers,
and grieve thou hast no more:
Bring every day thy choicest hours,
and thy great GOD adore.

But above all prepare thy heart
on this his own blest Day,
In its sweet task to bear thy part,
and sing and Love, and Pray.

Gloria Patri.

To God the Father, and the Son,
and Holy Ghost therefore;
Eternal honour let be done

Cant. & Bass. On the Divine Use of Musick. Or to 100 P. Tune.

Medius. An Hymn. A. 3. Voc.

Bassus. An Hymn. A. 3. Voc.

We'll joy in God, who is the spring
of lawful Joy and harmless Mirth,
Whose bounless Love is fitly call'd;
The Harmony of Heav'n and Earth.

These Praises, dearest Lord, aloud
our humblest Sonnets shall rehearse;
Which rightly tun'd, are rightly stil'd
The MUSICK of the Universe.

And

And whilst we sing, we'll consecrate,
that too too much prophaned Art;
By off'ring up with ev'ry Tongue,
in ev'ry Song a flaming Heart.

We'll hallow Pleasure, and redeem
from vulgar use our precious Voice:
Those Lips which wantonly have sung,
shall serve our turn for nobler Joys.

Thus we will imitate on Earth,
poor mortals still the heav'nly Quires:
And with high Notes, above the Cloud
we'll send with words more rais'd de

And that above we may be sure,
when we come there our part to know Whilst we live here, at home and Churc
we'll practice Singing oft below.

Gloria Patri.

Glory and praise be given most,
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost;
Hallelujah, Hallelujah,
Hallelujah, Hallelujah.
